SACRAMENTO, CAL., Aug. 15, 1884.

To the Business Men of Sacramento, Greeting:

In placing the first number of the "CAPITAL CITY READY REFERENCE" before you for your inspection, I do so with implicit confidence in its merit as an advertising medium. My aim has been to place only such matter in it as would be of benefit to the Genera Public, and trust that my efforts in that direction will be appreciated.

To the business men of Sacramento, who have bestowed upon me their very liberal patronage, I wish to return my heartiest thanks. And now, placing this work in your hands, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

THE TIVOLI.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., AUGUST 15th, 1884.

This popular place of amusement will re-open on September 6th, with first-class performances. It will be under the management of Messrs. Roraback & Alexander, and will be in the future as in the past run in a first-class manner. The News Publishing Co., have taken the contract to furnish programmes for the Tivoli, and for that purpose will start a newspaper, to be known as the "DAILY TIVOLI;" it is our intention to make this a paper that will be looked for daily, giving all the local news and gossip of the day; it will have a street circulation of fifteen hundred daily, also. from seven hundred to one thousand to be used as a programme in the Tivoli every night; thus making it one of the best advertising mediums of our City. We will call on the business men of Sacramento during the coming months, and hope to receive a liberal share of their patronage,

Yours very truly,

NEWS PUBLISHING CO.,
